

Disc Base

ThinkingWorks

Creating a place to retreat to for a casual meeting, quiet work project, or as somewhere to hold casual and informal meetings, breakout areas need to be comfortable and inviting.

An integral part of the office environment, employees and visitors can work, meet and relax in comfort with simple and stylish furniture such as disc base tables.

Disc bases can be paired with tops of varying sizes and finishes to create fun spaces for breakout areas or a more formal aesthetic for meeting requirements.

Available in a variety of base and column sizes.
